ANZAC DAY – TUESDAY, 25TH APRIL

In the middle of the school holidays we will commemorate ANZAC Day and will support the local Wallaroo community Dawn service. Thank you to the St Mary MacKillop School Singers choir, under the guidance of Bernie Thomson; choir volunteers will sing at the Dawn service.

Anzac Day is a day of commemoration that marks the first major military battle fought by Australian and New Zealand forces during the First World War and is in remembrance of all those who have given their lives fighting for peace.

We continue to remember and pray for all people living with war, especially Ukraine, that they will know peace soon.

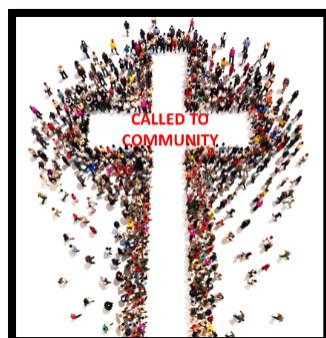

Thank you for the many ways that you have contributed to our school throughout this term.

I wish you all a very happy and safe holiday break. I hope you get the chance to rest, relax and refresh and I look forward to Term 2 after a good break.

FROM THE REC

HOLY WEEK

Last Monday, the Reception classes re-enacted Palm Sunday and how crowds of people welcomed Jesus into Jerusalem shortly before he was crucified. All the classes stood along the path from the Sacred Heart Centre to the main building and waved palms as Jesus and his disciples walk along the road.

FROM THE REC

HOLY WEEK

On Holy Thursday, we joined together in the MPLA to listen to the Last Supper, the Garden of Gethsemane and the Stations of the Cross.

Miss Norton and the 2/3 class presented the Last Supper echo mime, which told the story of Jesus' last meal with his friends

Aarvin, Trinity, Bentley, Armani, Savanna and Lucy from Miss Kotz's 3/4 class re-enacted Jesus praying at the Garden of Gethsemane.

Sienna and Maddalyn from Miss Wehr's 2/3 class led the Stations of the Cross. The Stations of the Cross were painted by John Dunn, an Olkola man from Far North Queensland. This painting is seven metres in length. There are four journey tracks that connect. Two integrate the aboriginal story with Christ's own Way of the Cross. Along the top and bottom, tracks made of thorny branches speak of colonisation and its impact on the Aboriginal community.

HOLY WEEK

On Tuesday morning, the school community came together and reflected on the wonderful event of Jesus' resurrection which is celebrated on Easter Sunday with a meditation on the symbolism and connection of the Easter egg to the empty tomb.

On the prayer focus table, there were symbols used at the previous Holy Week plays. These symbols were all connected with our celebration of Easter.

The brightly coloured Easter egg, is a sign of joy and celebration, and of new life. The large Easter egg was broken and we found that the egg is empty – like the empty tomb from which Jesus rose at Easter time.

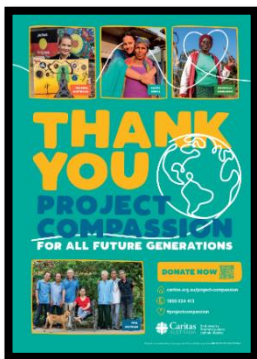

At the end of the meditation, the school candle was lit as a sign that Jesus is alive and is with us.

The candle, the empty tomb and the Easter egg all remind us of the presence of Jesus. Whenever we light a candle for prayer, we remember the presence of Jesus amongst us.

PROJECT COMPASSION

Thank you to the Year 4/5 class, Mrs Ryan and Mrs Price for your Project Compassion initiative this week. They have been selling Zooper Doopers and students can guess how many lollies are in the jar. Thank you to those who have supported the fundraiser and purchased a Zooper Dooper or had a guess for the lolly jar.

PROJECT COMPASSION BOXES

Caritas Australia would like to THANK YOU for supporting Project Compassion 2023. If you still have your Project Compassion box at home, please bring it back to school this week.

Your generosity will empower the world's most vulnerable communities to grow stronger and lift themselves out of poverty.

Together, we can help vulnerable communities face their challenges today and build a better tomorrow For All Future Generations.

FR CHRIS KOWALCZYK SDS

Fr Chris will be celebrating his 60th birthday on Tuesday, 18th April. We hope Fr Chris has a lovely day and we give thanks for all that he does in our school, parish and wider community.

Fr Chris will be away during May as he is going to Rome. We know that he will enjoy his time in Rome and we look forward to hearing about it when he returns.

Lord,

Please watch over Fr Chris while he is travelling. Protect him and keep him safe. Surround him with your love and comfort. Carry him through his travels and bring him home safely.

FROM THE REC

As the term comes to an end, we thank the Lord for the many blessings we have received this term. We voice our gratitude for the good things you have done in us, and we praise you for all who have shared in the work of our school.

Lord, we ask you to please bless all our students, their families and our staff and to give them refreshment and peace during these holidays.

PAST SCHOLAR NEWS

Leanne Jenkins
Class of 1991 (Year 7)

What ignited your passion for your career choice?

To be honest, I really didn't know what I wanted to do when I 'grew up' but I have always had a love of cars. I now have my dream job with the two things I love – cars and organising. Working for the Shannon's Auction and Events team allows me to travel, to see some of the most amazing cars and to take care of a great team of people.

What have been some defining moments in your career and life?

I left my job of nearly 12 years to pursue my passion for cars and it was the best career decision I have made.

I realised that you don't need anyone else to make you happy – do what you love, take that trip and enjoy what you have got. Life is too short.

What advice would you give our current students?

Always do your best, complete the highest level of education possible even if you think it's a waste of time and ALWAYS treat others the way you would like to be treated.

What is your favourite memory of your time at Kalori Catholic/St Mary MacKillop School?

Earning my place to attend the Sovereign Hill, Ballarat trip in year 7. Seeing how people lived, what school was like and how they dressed in the olden days.

ChatGDP

There have been a lot of reports in the media about the recent launch of the free AI chatbot, ChatGPT. Many believe that students need to be prepared for a future filled with artificial intelligence tools, however opinion is divided as to the benefits to education. I have limited knowledge of chatbots, so I decided to do a little research.

AI chatbots draw on vast pools of online content to answer questions by generating sentences, paragraphs and essays. ChatGPT is one of the latest chatbots available and is capable of a variety of tasks including writing responses, as well as solving science and math problems. Some Australian states, and some international school districts, have banned ChatGPT, but SA has not. In fact, SA Education Minister Boyer endorses the decision for SA public schools and universities to use ChatGPT (Gunst 2023). Additionally, Martin Westwell, the Chief Executive of the SA Department for Education, suggests students are able to use chatGPT for some tasks (The Advertiser 2023).

Opinion on the benefits of using AI and ChatGPT in a school are varied. Teachers have been encouraged to use AI and ChatGPT to discover the possibilities they offer – including its use as a teaching tool to unlock student creativity, for personalized learning experiences for students (Reese 2023), to improve teaching practice, and to encourage real-world knowledge application (Mansfield 2023). However, some schools have banned access to ChatGPT amid concerns about safety and accuracy of the content, and concerns that using ChatGPT for some schoolwork, particularly homework tasks, is essentially cheating. Other concerns include a 2022 paper published in the journal Frontiers in Artificial Intelligence which reported that AI technologies should be used with caution as they might diminish cognitive abilities such as learning and memory (Gunst 2023). There are also concerns around use of ChatGPT with current assessment methods and difficulties for out-of-class assessments (Gunst 2023). Further, whilst ChatGPT can create well-written and coherent answers, the bot has been known to be inaccurate (Verma & Oremus 2023) with factual questions often wrong and use of made-up quotes attributed to people that never existed.

After reading about AI and ChatGPT I have a little more information now and am able to take what I have read and form an opinion of my own, based on what I have read. One question I have after reading these opinion pieces is what about critical literacy – does ChatGPT have the ability to create an opinion piece? For example, critical literacy involves students having an opinion about what they read and being able to compare and contrast two different texts. For Year 6 students, the Australian curriculum requires them to analyse, interpret and evaluate, and to connect and compare content from a variety of sources; and identify similarities and differences in literary texts on similar topics, themes or plots. To achieve this, I believe there is a need for students to read widely and to have rich, in-class discussions around the texts they are studying in order to form their own opinions in response. Just as I have done here where I conclude with my own opinion about ChatGPT – that it appears it cannot replace an original opinion piece and that for this reason it has merit but only for some situations. I look forward to learning more.

OUR SAAY COMPETITION

This year has seen the launch of a new public speaking competition by the Commissioner for Aboriginal Children and Young People. It is known as the OUR SAAY Competition. It encourages young Aboriginal people to raise their voices on important topics and matters in Aboriginal affairs and share their connection to their Indigenous heritage.

The Our SAAY Competition 2023, was open to students in Primary Years (Year 3-6), Middle Years (Year 7-9) and Secondary Years (Year 10-12). I am very pleased to acknowledge that Nevayah Karpany, in Year 5, took up this public speaking challenge. She was very happy to do so, as a proud Nharangga girl. Nevayah worked with her family and was able to strengthen her oral speaking skills. She learned about creating basic notes to help keep her on track with remembering the ideas which she wanted to share.

This week, Nevayah delivered her talk to a member of the Commissioner for Aboriginal Children and Young People, Jessica Maynard. Nevayah wrote a short reflection on the challenge of the experience, which follows below. Congratulations on your wonderful preparation and effort, Nevayah!

Afterwards I felt good because I did it!"

LAWN BOWLS

During Week 10, students from Year 1-9 participated in lawn bowls. Brett Herbert and Bob Scott from Bowls Australia ran sessions introducing the correct bowling technique and providing students with various games to practice their skills. Students enjoyed learning a new sport and many commented on how much fun they had. We thank Brett and Bob for their time.

YEAR 4/5 FUNDRAISER

In Religious Education, the Year 4/5 class has been learning about Lent and how we should pray, fast or give. We also have the Year 4/5 Kindness Campaign where we do random acts of kindness.

So, as a class, we decided to plan a fundraiser to sell Zooper Doopers and made up a guess the lolly jar.

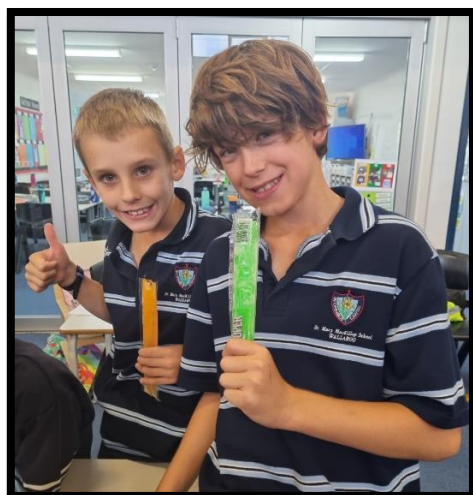

We have been doing this at recess all this week, with the last sales and guesses being taken tomorrow (Thursday) at recess. We still have lots of iceblocks left.

Zooper Doopers cost $1 and a guess of the guess the lolly jar costs 50 cents.

A big thank you to Mrs Ryan and Mrs Price for organising the fundraiser; Year 4/5 parents who donated iceblocks; Amani, Connor, Eloise and Isabelle C for organising the roster and posters; and thank you to Ms Miller for letting us do the fundraiser. All money raised will be donated to Project Compassion.
